DR. LYON IS ELOQUENT

Large Delegations Last Night from Swisher and Jewett Companies ---Large Attendance.

Tonight's Services.
7:30—Dr. Lyon will deliver his greatest sermon, "The Dead Line in Amusements," scoring card playing, dancing and theatre-going.
Tomorrow's Services.
10:00 a. m.—Children's Choir will meet at the tabernacle.
12:00 M.—Men's meeting at Wyeth Sied Factor.
7:00 p. m.—Song service at the tabernacle.
7:30 p. m.—Sermon by Dr. Lyon. Mrs. Grace Powell will sing at all services.

With splendid delegations present from the Jewett Car Works and the Swisher Cigar factory, Dr. M. H. Lyon last night delivered what has been considered by many as his strongest sermon, in which he described the sufficiency of power and attainment in the grace that comes to those who accept Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour. For over an hour Dr. Lyon held the attention of his audience by his splendid logic, and while the conversions in the aftermeetings were not numerous, a stand for the higher life was taken by many men and women who are in a position, by their influence, to bring scores to Christ before the present meetings are finished.

The audience last evening numbered about 2500 persons, and the manner in which they rendered the songs from Prof. R. E. Mitchell's "Little red book" was both impressive and inspiring. "The Church in the Wildwood," "Showers of Blessing," "Tell It Wherever You Go," and "I'll Sing the Wondrous Story" were the selections for the evening, and it is certain that Prof. Mitchell's chorus choir never sang better, although several of them were compelled to remain from the meeting.

Augmenting these musical numbers was a splendid duet by Prof. Mitchell and Mrs. Grace Powell, "He'll Never Forget to Keep Me," and this bore its message of the sufficiency of grace with the same directness of application that characterized Dr. Lyon's sermon. It is a commendable fact that the solos and duets offered by the special singers of the Lyon party are always in the best harmony with the subject for the evening discussion, and it is certain that to this phase of the work much credit is due for the supreme interest manifested by the large audience.

Using Two Pianos Now.

Two handsome grand pianos were on the platform last night and assisted wonderfully in swelling the volume of the music. Pianist Albert G. Fath of the Lyon party, whose work is particularly fascinating and capable, was, of course, in his usual post, and assisted by Miss Julia Sells, one of the competent young pianists of the local High school, who carried her accompaniments in splendid manner.

Dr. Lyon's appearance on the platform was the signal for an assuring outburst of applause which caused the evangelist's face to light up with that smile that has endeared him to the hearts of all who have come in contact with his sincerity and kindly spirit. When the brief confusion had subsided, Dr. Lyon welcomed the visiting delegations to the tabernacle. "It's good to see the girls here from the Swisher factory and the men from the Jewett Car Works," he said.

"I want to say to you men that my early life was spent in a tin shop, and that is about the next thing to your work. I learned that trade until I was nineteen years old, and more than once I had my fingers pinched in the rollers, and the hammer blackened by fingers, so I have a heap of sympathy with the men that pound along day after day in the mill and in the shops.

"I really envy Mrs. Allison and Mr. Holloway for the pleasure they are getting out of their work, by getting in personal touch with you. I believe the meeting that I most enjoy is one where I can jump up on a piece of machinery and tell the men about Jesus while they are eating their dinner.

Hopes for Great Revival.

"I pray that every man in your mill and every girl in the Swisher factory may come out definitely on the Lord's side before these meetings are closed."

Dr. Lyon added that he had been slightly misrepresented in regard to his sermon for this evening, "The Dead Line in Amusements." "I believe in amusements. I believe God wants us to have a good time, and I want to treat this subject tonight fairly, frankly but firmly," he declared. He made brief announcement of the usual four Sunday services, evening, the men's meeting on "Sowing and Reaping" in the afternoon and the women's meeting, addressed by Mrs. Frances Allison, at the First M. E. church at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

"My grace is sufficient for thee," quoted Dr. Lyon, as the text for his evening discourse, "I am going to speak to those who are in the difficult places in life. Any plan of salvation to be worthy of God and all men must be broad in its scope and effective enough in results to meet the needs of all classes and conditions of society, not only the favorable but also the unfavorable situation. There are those who are trying to excuse themselves from living the Christian life because, they say, they find themselves possessed by nature with evil elements of character, and they reason this way, 'I have had no part in bringing myself into this world, endowing myself with these unfortunate attributes, and certainly a just and loving God is not going to call me to account for possession of an evil nature that I have not endowed myself with.' Others say, 'I find my surroundings in the school, home and shop such that my environment is unfavorable for being a Christian and living a Christian life, and since I am not responsible for this surrounding, surely a just God is not going to ask me to be a Christian under these conditions.' That seems fair enough. One thing is certain—that God is striving with this world all wickedness, and He is trying to make each day's conditions more favorable for you and me.

No Reasonable Excuse.
"In the meantime, while things are as they are, when you have to work in the shop beside the man who swears and brings out your evil nature instead of the best of you when the conditions in the home and store and school seems to stifle the best and stimulate the worst, are you to be excused from living a Christian life? Yes,—were it not for one thing, and that is the plain statement of God's word in the text of this evening, (20 Cor. 12:9) 'For my grace is sufficient for thee.' I care not how heavily there may weigh down on one side of the scales the evil heredity and evil environment, if you will put this plain promise of God on the other side, it will go down and the other side of the scale will go up."

There are three special thoughts in connection with this promise that Dr. Lyon emphasizes. "The first has to do with the quality of God's grace, the second with the quantity of God's grace and the third with the directness of God's grace."
"Someone has defined grace a good deal better than I can, when he said: 'Grace is the free and unmerited favor of God.' You have heard people talk about free grace. There is no other kind of grace. You might just as well talk of anything being free gratis for nothing. It's simply piling up terms. We have little in this world like unto the grace of God. The nearest we have in business is the three days grace we get on a note, but if a note is discounted, the three days of grace are discounted too, so that there is really no grace in business, after all.

"One man told in a testimony meeting that it took him forty years to learn three things about God's plan of salvation. I can learn that in about three minutes, and will be 39 years, 11 months, 29 days, 11 hours, 57 minutes ahead of time. The first one is that God's salvation cannot be bought. Next, it can be had free. Third, if it could be bought, you could not pay what it is worth.

Taking From One Pocket.

"God's salvation cannot be bought. Why? Because we have not the wherewithal to buy it. If we try to pay God for everlasting life, where would we get the wherewithal to pay for it. It would simply be taking money out of one pocket and putting it into the other. All we have has come from God, for every good and perfect gift is from above.

"If you and I should try to pay God for salvation, we could not pay what it is worth," declared the evangelist, as he placed before his audience the hypothetical case of offering a $10 Bible for 25 cents, and told of the mad rush of a certain man to get it. The man, he said, would probably rush home and tell his wife about "his shrewdness in getting such a bargain." "He would take all the credit to himself, just like those ladies that read about bargains and will go down to that mercantile football game and crowd all around the counters, and then go home and tell their neighbors about the $1.01 piece of dress goods that they got for 99 cents.

"They take all the credit to themselves. That's just the same as if you and I, by any effort of our own, could get eternal life—we would be boastful of 'our' achievement.

"Suppose God would make a proclamation tonight that if any person in Licking county would walk on his hands and knees from here to California and back, he would gain everlasting life. Lots of people would start before the week was over, and if any of them got back alive, they would brag and boast through all eternity. "We are so proud and egotistical that God can't do anything for the average man or woman. Therefore God deals with me and with you on the only plane that He can deal with us—He gives us grace absolutely free.

Whoever paid God for the blessing of life, even the material blessings. Whoever paid God for the mountains and hills, the lakes and rivers, and oceans, for the prairies and valleys, for the beauty of the clouds and sun and stars, for the breezes that fan the fevered cheek or the flowers that delight the eyes? No one ever paid God for these gifts. He gives them absolutely free to His children, and the very fact that salvation has been made free leaves us without excuse. Whoever could have paid Jesus Christ, who left the glory of heaven to come down and suffer and die for us? He does it to manifest to us the infinite affection of our heavenly Father."

This leaves every soul entirely without reason for rejecting salvation," concluded Dr. Lyon. "Anyone can take a gift."

Gives Away a Quarter.

Dr. Lyon emphasized this point by offering a coin to a little "white haired friend" on the front row. The boy took the coin wondering, said "Thank you" and went back to his seat, when the evangelist told him that the coin was his "for keeps."

"I had an awful time getting rid of a coin the other night. I tried a couple of hundred boys and girls and I couldn't get one of them to come and take it.

"That boy believed me. 'Except ye be converted and become as little children ye can in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven.' If you are ever saved you have to accept salvation just as that boy accepted that coin. Accept it as a gift from God.

"If you are saved, but by no process of works can you get saved. The very fact that salvation is free leaves you without any excuse for not having it. Everybody can take a gift.

ROOSEVELT CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

May Be Able to Return to Oyster-Bay First of Next Week

SPENDS A GOOD NIGHT

And Was Much Refreshed Today ---Gives Gov. Johnson Encouraging Words.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18.—Because of the assurance of his physicians that he was doing nicely, Colonel Roosevelt today wanted to be allowed to return to Oyster Bay not later than Sunday night. Although giving the colonel no assurance that he could leave the hospital, the physicians stated that he might be able to go home Monday or Tuesday. All, however, depends on his condition within the next two days. Mrs. Roosevelt agreed with the physicians that it would be wise for the colonel to wait until the first of the week.

The colonel spent a good night and suffered no pain as the result of his fractured rib. It has not yet been decided whether the bullet will be removed. The colonel said that if it is removed, he would have it gilded and made into a pocket piece.

Tells Johnson to Fight.

"Keep up the fight, full blast, Johnson. Do not let our boys slack up in their work, because I am not able to be with them for a few days. Tell the people you speak to that I wish I could be there, working with you myself, and that I certainly will be as soon as my doctors will let me."

This was Colonel Roosevelt's parting injunction and encouragement to Governor Hiram Johnson, Progressive candidate for vice-president, as the latter left the presidential candidate at the Mercy Hospital today.

No Trial This Month.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 18.—John W. Schrank, who attempted to kill Theodore Roosevelt in Milwaukee Monday night, was as much unruffled as ever today. It was intimated today that the reason for having the prisoner's bail increased from $7,500 to $15,000 was the result of a plan of certain moving picture men to have him released and placed under heavy guard long enough to obtain a series of picture films.

The prisoner will not be brought to court until after the November election, according to a statement of District Attorney Zabel.

Causes a Sensation.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 18.—Medill McCormick, of Chicago, stirred up a sensation before the Clapp Committee today, when as the first witness in today's session, he read a prepared statement touching upon the alleged assassination of Colonel Roosevelt, declaring it had been instigated by "falsehoods and character assassins and liars like Charles B. Hilles."

"It is difficult for any ordinary man in the compass of ordinary language to compete with the testimony of character assassins and liars like Mr. Hilles, men who by their falsehoods incite weak-minded men to actual assassination," was the passage which brought out a storm of protest from the committee, in which Chairman Clapp joined.

Sensors Oliver and Clapp declined to allow Mr. McCormick to continue to read, and demanded that he withdraw his words. The statement was finally admitted to the record, without being read from the prepared copy.

The reference to the attempt on Colonel Roosevelt's life was incidental to Mr. McCormick's general statement of campaign expenses of the Progressive party in Illinois.

MEETING OF THE LICKING COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CLUB

There will be a meeting of the Licking County Democratic club at the Democratic headquarters on South Third street tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Local orators will discuss the issues of the day and a good time in general is promised all who attend. All members of any political party who intend voting for Governor Woodrow Wilson are given an especial invitation to attend. The meeting will be called promptly at 7:30. Be on hand early and hear the political issues of the day discussed by your fellow citizens.

GOV. WILSON SPEAKS TO CHEERING THOUSANDS IN HIS TOUR OF DELAWARE

Urges That They "Join the Procession of Progressive States"—"Dangerous to Block the Progress of Reform in America"—Democratic Candidate for President Says His Thought is Constantly of That Gallant Gentleman Lying in the Hospital at Chicago.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 18.—Governor Wilson shifted his attack in speeches throughout Delaware yesterday from the third party program to President Taft and his administration.

The Governor apologized repeatedly for the necessity occasioned by engagements that could not be broken, of campaigning while the man who has been his only active opponent is incapacitated.

"My thought is constantly of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago."

With this sentiment running through his speeches Governor Woodrow Wilson deplored the assault on Colonel Roosevelt and deprecated the use of violence to interrupt the course of politics.

The Governor made four speeches, appeared before cheering throngs in nearly a dozen towns and closed the day with a big parade and meeting at Wilmington last night.

Urging Delaware to "join the procession of progressive states," Governor Wilson declared in his speeches that it was "dangerous to block the progress of reform in America," and that the "standpat dam, which is the only thing that holds back the popular forces will presently break."

"I do not predict trouble in the United States," he said. "I rejoice to believe that America is singularly a self-possessed nation. It is adverse to nothing so much as violent disorder. I believe that part of the sadness we now suffer from because of that atrocious assault upon Mr. Roosevelt is a feeling that there is anybody in the United States who would dare interrupt the orderly course of politics and the public affairs of this country."

LOCAL KNIGHTS FORCED TO WAIT ON LATE TRAIN

About thirty members of the local Knights Templar lodge had an exciting time at Triway Thursday night, en route home from the conclave of Knights Templar at Cleveland. They had intended transferring to the Pennsylvania road at that point, but the train arriving in Newark shortly after six o'clock failed to wait for them, through an error in issuance of train orders. The agent at Triway refused to have their private coach attached to train No. 13, arriving here four hours later, because the train was one of the fastest on the line and does not usually stop at Triway. The contract of the local

BECKER DEFENSE STARTED

State Closed Case Against Police Lieutenant Last Evening

MURDER OF ROSENTHAL

Inspired by Clique of Gamblers Will Be the Lines of Defense's Contention.

New York, Oct. 18.—John W.

Hart, of counsel for Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, on trial on the charge that he instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler, has begun his opening address to the jury, the state having rested its case. If Becker has his way, Hart says, he will go on the stand in his own behalf. Whether counsel will attempt to dissuade him from the desire has not been determined. John F. McIntyre, his chief attorney, said "Becker is anxious to take the stand. We may allow him to but this has not been determined."

Former District Attorney Jerome will be one of a dozen or more witnesses the defense plans to call. Jerome is expected by Becker's counsel to break down a portion of the testimony of Jack Rose in connection with an alleged telephone conversation with Becker, introduced by the state to show that Becker had guilty knowledge of the crime. Sam Paul, whose gambling place was frequently raided by Becker, and other members of the gambling fraternity, are also included among Becker's witnesses.

The accused Police Lieutenant expressed himself as confident of acquittal after adjournment had been taken on the announcement by District Attorney Whitman that the people's case was complete.

Becker was in a happy mood, for the counsel had just won a victory over the prosecution. This was when Justice Goff granted a motion by McIntyre that there be excluded all testimony tending to show that Becker had amassed a fortune from gamblers in graft.

District Attorney Whitman had 13 bank tellers ready to swear that Becker had bank accounts totaling nearly $50,000, but not one was allowed to testify. Justice Goff upheld McIntyre's argument that without proof that Rosenthal, the "squalor," knew that Becker's bank account represented the proceeds of graft, the evidence could not show that they constituted a motive for the killing of Rosenthal.

"Extortion and bribery are not charged in this indictment," declared Becker's attorney. "The charge is solely that of murder."

To introduce such proof the prosecution recalled to the stand Jack Rose, Becker's alleged collector of graft, but Judge Goff refused to permit him to be examined along this line.

Mrs. Lillian Rosenberg, wife of "Lefty Louie" one of the gun men charged with the actual slaying of Rosenthal, furnished one of the sensations of the day's proceedings when she appeared as a state's witness.

Although denying any knowledge of her husband's whereabouts on the night of the murder, Mrs. Rosenberg told of the visit Sam Schepps and Jack Rose made to her home to ask the aid of her husband in getting Jack Zelig, the gang leader, out of jail.

ANALYSIS OF SERIES BY RICE

PAYS TRIBUTE TO MATTY. BUT SAYS THE PITCHER COULD NOT BEAT BOTH TEAMS.

Compares Work of Clubs, Man for Man—Pronounces Herzog as Star of the Series.

Boston, Oct. 18.—There is but one answer to the most dramatic, heart-tearing world's series ever played. Mathewson, the central figure of the swirling scene could beat the Red Sox, but he was powerless before the combined assault of the Red Sox and Giants. Briefly, pitching with all the wonder of his combined brain, heart and arm, he was unequal to the task of beating both clubs. He was never greater in his career, but there is no man that ever lived who is great enough to beat it.

Three times he stood and fought back the Red Sox rush. He carried them in two extra session rounds, in spite of his support, not because of it. In these three contests he held his rivals to two earned runs, while eight

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU TAKE FOR A COLD

Because it is free from alcohol, narcotics and dangerous drugs, Father John's Medicine has had 50 years of success as a tonic and body builder, for healing throat and lungs and in the treatment of coughs and colds. Father John's Medicine is a doctor's prescription—pure and wholesome. Guaranteed.

Henrickson's timely bat and the score was tied. But he still had an even fight and when the redoubtable Murray tore a double from Wood in the tenth and Merkle drove him home, it seemed as if fate at last had turned his way, won over by his valiant battle against such unbeatable odds.

Engle, batting for Wood, lifted a fly to center and one man looked gone. The ball soared up and looped in a curving arch to Snodgrass, set for the play, thudded in his glove and popped out again as if striking the heart of the rubber trust. Hooper, however, died on a line smash, and there was a chance again.

Speaker, always a deadly dangerous hitter, swung weakly and lifted a short easy foul within six feet of first. Merkle, apparently still in a trance from the fatal mud in center, failed to rush for the ball, which should have been one of the easiest outs of the game, and it fluttered to earth.

Drives Sallowness from the Skin

Ladies, imperfect complexion is caused by a sluggish liver. CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS will do more to clean up the skin than all the beauty creams in existence.

Small Pills, Small Dose, Small Price. The GENUINE name here is important.

Pure Food

Between these two plays the extra $20,000 which had almost disappeared into Giants pockets, fluttered out and over to Boston, for Speaker, given life, slashed a hit, and before the rally ended Mathewson had lost another fight.

Beyond sympathy for Mathewson we have no allbills to present. When a series goes to the tenth round of the eighth game and swings in the balance upon an easy fly ball and a short pop-foul, we'll leave it to keener visions than we possess to cut into the dope and award the edge on playing form.

The Giants outbatted, outpitched and outplayed Boston on the bases by a margin of 2 to 1. But when a team excelling in these departments with 26 earned runs against 12 is unable to maintain and protect this advantage in defensive play there is certainly no room coming over the break of the battle. When a team can't protect a margin of 14 earned runs in eight games sufficiently to win at least four of the games, there is no opening left to charge the final result to luck, despite the greater part luck played all through this frenzied drama.

Team for team, the Giants batted 275 against 223, scored 31 runs against 25, made 75 hits for 101 bases against 61 hits for 55 bases, stole 13 bases to Boston's six and earned 26 runs to Boston's 12. But against this McGraw's team had 18 errors to Boston's 10 and of the 18, 14 came at tight spots of the battle and brought in the runs.

Through this wretched defense, the Giants first kicked themselves into the hole and were trailing three to one. They then steadied, fought their way back savagely to even terms, and with the championship won, turned again in the last round of the 75 innings played and proceeded to kick it away beyond recall. And with all their rank fielding through the series—lightened as it was by any number of brilliant plays—they reserved the last of the 75 rounds to offer their greatest flare-up and their most miserable work.

Summed up in closer detail, Meyers outbatted and outcaught Cady, Mathewson, Marquard and Tesreau combined outpitched Wood, O'Brien, Collins and Bedient. Stahl outplayed Merkle by yards, and Yerkes outplayed Doyle as an asset to his club.

At short, Wagner was steadier than Fletcher, and did the better work, due to Fletcher's ghastly start. But neither could hit. Over at third, the margin was the widest, as Herzog outplayed Gardner by 40 lengths, also outplayed the rest of the field. Beyond all doubt, he was the star of the series in every way from the viewpoint of batting, timely hitting, run-getting, fielding, steadiness and brilliancy.

Murray, playing left field in five of the eight games, was Herzog's closest rival from the field. He outclassed Lewis at every turn and stands as one of the big stars of any world's series play. But for the breaks of fortune against him he would have won the first and last game alone, driving in or scoring four of the five runs compiled by the Giants in these two contests.

In center Speaker loomed so far beyond Snodgrass the comparison is pitiful. Speaker was the only Red Sox to bat 300, and his fielding was brilliant. Snodgrass, batting poorly, helped kick away two games in the field, and was the main cause of the last disaster.

Over in right, Devore and Hooper had a game, brilliant fight, where both were effective at bat and both saved the situation time and again by remarkable catches. When Hooper raced to the right field wall, launched himself into mid-air Wednesday and hauled down Larry Doyle's almost sure home run he not only made the greatest individual play of the series, but saved the game beyond all doubt. Of the nine jobs each team excelled in four, with one a tie.

Team for team, the Giants excelled in three of the four vital departments—batting, pitching, fielding and baserunning—but were too far shy in their one weak department to cover their margin in other ways.

It seems the irony of fate to have this last desperate charge marred and blurred by plays which you or I, weary reader, who haven't possibly handled a ball in years, could make with one hand while lighting a pipe with the other.

The star of the series was Herzog, who outplayed both teams at every angle—who outbatted, and outscored all others, and who fought his way through eight nerve-smashing games without an error. Next to Herzog ranks Jack Murray.

For Boston the stars were Speaker, Yerkes, Stahl and Hooper. Among the big disappointments was Larry Doyle, who, despite several brilliant plays, was far below the class he showed last year.

Summed up, it was a series including the wildest mixture of brilliant and wretched playing—impossible catches and easy chances marred wonderful and bush league pitching, desperate chances and dumb, bush league work—a veritable swirl of all that goes to make up baseball from every angle of the game.

AMUSEMENTS

"THE SMART SET" TONIGHT.

After a long absence we are to have that peer of all negro comedians and funmakers S. H. Dudley, in our midst again. Announcement is made that this gifted Ethiopian annihilator of the blues, and the famous "Smart Set" company will be the attraction at the Auditorium theatre tonight. The organization will appear in a lively, mirth-provoking and rollicking musical comedy piece entitled "Doctor Beans from Boston." It is a clever vehicle, replete with novel features, melody and surprises and presented in a manner befitting the reputation of its star and incomparable cast, which includes Henry Troy, James Burke, Arthur Talbot, Dole Gibson, Lottie Grady, Bessie Payne and Alberta Ornes.

"THE ROSARY" TOMORROW.

Whatever else may be said of Rowland and Clifford's new production, "The Rosary" which comes to the Auditorium tomorrow matinee and night, the charge of imitation of other plays cannot be made. "The Rosary" virtually breaks new ground in the dramatic field and should prove a veritable surprise when the curtain rises upon it.

The play is built upon a thoroughly modern theme, viz.: The influence of thought upon the lives and well being of the men and women of our present day.

That thought intangible and evanescent as it is, is still a force, a power, a theory, that has for some time past engaged the serious attention of our foremost psychologists, but its portrayal upon the stage has been neglected heretofore.

"The Rosary" attacks the theme boldly. It deals with the lives and fortunes of a little group of people living in the Westchester country near New York City. The husband is a disbeliever in all religion, his wife a woman of serious conviction regarding faith in the things of life unseen.

"THE PRICE"

At the Auditorium on Wednesday, Oct. 23, Clarence Bennett and company will present Edna Marshall for an engagement of one performance in "The Price."

"The Price" is a modern drama in three acts from the pen of George Broadhurst, the author of "Thought and Pain For," "The Man of the House" and other successful plays. It deals with the problem some women encounter in the winning of happiness through love. In it Mr. Broadhurst touches one of the momentous questions that can come into the lives of every day folks. Miss Marshall is said to have a part worthy of her talents as one of the greatest emotional actresses on our stage today.

With his usual care for a perfect performance, Clarence Bennett and company selected a superior cast to support Miss Marshall in "The Price." Each of the characters has been placed in the hands of players capable of giving Mr. Broadhurst's thoughts the fullest expressions.

In the matter of stage equipment, "The Price" has been given the same careful study as always mark the Hudson theatre, New York, productions. The settings are in keeping with the play in every respect, no detail has been overlooked to make the illusion perfect.

unbounded praise from the press as the way of "Madame Sherry." The New York World has this to say: "It is easily the brightest and most diverting musical production New York has seen in many a day, or is likely to see in as many more. At last a musical show that's novel." The Sun added these few lines: "The audience applauded every musical number and laughed at everything the comedians plainly labeled as a merry jest."

"Madame Sherry" will be seen here at the Auditorium Thursday evening, Oct. 24th.

"BUSY IZZY."

That succession of genuine fun and music surprises, the 1912 edition of "Busy Izzy" with George Sidney in the stellar role, is booked for an early appearance at the Auditorium.

This big musical entertainment has met with enormous success in all parts of the country. Miss Carrie Weber, who is Mr. Sidney's chief aide in the fun making, is a comedienne of rare ability and the rest of the cast and chorus is fully up to the standard set by other musical organizations.

THE ORPHEUM.

Owing to the fact that Bud Farnum, black face comedian, who was booked to appear at the Orpheum last evening, was suddenly taken ill, and was unable to play the engagement, Manager Boyce made arrangements for another act and as the train did not arrive until 8:25 p. m., the act just arrived at the theatre in time to make their first show, which they did and received great applause. The act under the name of the "Negroes, Magic Artists," have a big line of feature entertainment for the patrons of the last half of the week.

The act of Cannon Bean, the clown, is new and different from any other of its kind. Mr. Bean received hearty applause last evening.

The "Curtis Trio," harmony singers, are very good, as they won over their audience at once and were forced to respond to many encores.

Hague & Herbit, the funny comedians, are the best character impersonators to appear at the Orpheum in many months. Their songs and dances are fine.

The Great Pauline with his mystery work pleased the audience greatly last evening.

This bill taking it all together, is better than any this season, and Manager Boyce says he wishes to give the public the best and is going to do so.

Tonight will be amateur night and as an added attraction a Newark gentleman will appear. He is well known in Newark, as Prof. J. W. Straup, a local barber, and will appear in songs and character impersonations.

POLICE COURT.

Two arrests were made by the police Thursday night, both of minor character, and pending the return of Mayor Swartz, trial will be deferred.

The first call was for the arrest of Harvey Kennedy, who is charged with abusing his wife, and who was arrested by Officer Sunkel. George Anderson was also picked up and charged with being abusive to the officer who made the arrest.

The police were called to the vicinity of the Riverside school by residents who were not-gifted with an appreciation of innocent boyish activities. The boys of the school had built a bonfire. The arrival of the auto patrol sent the boys scattering in all directions.

Immense Crowd at Noon Business Lunch

The strongest sermon that Dr. Lyon has preached in this city has not been preached at the tabernacle, according to the two hundred business men who gathered at the noonday luncheon at the First Presbyterian church today. It was only twenty minutes long, but it was filled with points of argument so decisive in their effect that there was not a man present who did not accord to the speaker the most sincere praise possible. The talk was given at the close of an excellent luncheon served by the ladies of the First Congregational church, followed by a solo by Prof. R. E. Mitchell, rich in meaning and powerful in its interpretation.

Dr. Lyon's message appealed to the business men with a force that is simply indescribable. At its close men who have not been identified with a religious movement for years, crowded around the speaker, extending to him their warmest greetings and expressions of sympathy in the work that he is striving to do in Newark.

Dr. Lyon took for his text "The Unreasonable Religion" reading from Isaiah 1, 18th verse. "Come now, let us reason together, saith the Lord." The speaker entered into his subject with an earnestness that convinced his hearers that he was more than sincere, that he was in fact inspired and as he delved into his eloquent appeal to the business men of Newark a great silence prevailed throughout the big dining room of the church. He said that Jesus Christ never asked a person to believe in Him until he had given cause for that belief. He then described the two elements that enter into a man's being and drew a vivid picture of these two tenants, our higher and lower nature, comparing them to Kipling's, Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. "The two cannot remain equal—one must reign supreme, and the speaker showed the way to a higher, purer and more ideal life.

Dr. Lyon next spoke of "The Fast of Sin," saying that too much was heard of vice and too little of sin. He advised all to receive God as their Savior, as He blots out all sins and gives the great victory.

Dr. Lyon concluded his most eloquent talk by speaking on the "Fast of Death." No matter what you believe the fact of death no one can gainsay. All of us must come face to face with that great truth, all of us must die. He advised all to come out flat-footed for Jesus Christ and to take into their hearts the Son of God.

RHEUMATISM

Sciatica and Neuritis

Three diseases which have plagued humanity with needless pains and aches for centuries, attacking people of all degrees and ages and defying doctors, are RHEUMATISM, SCIATICA and NEURITIS.

Should it become known that a physician living here could RELIEVE EVERY CASE of these stubborn diseases, the sufferers of this and surrounding cities would crowd his office.

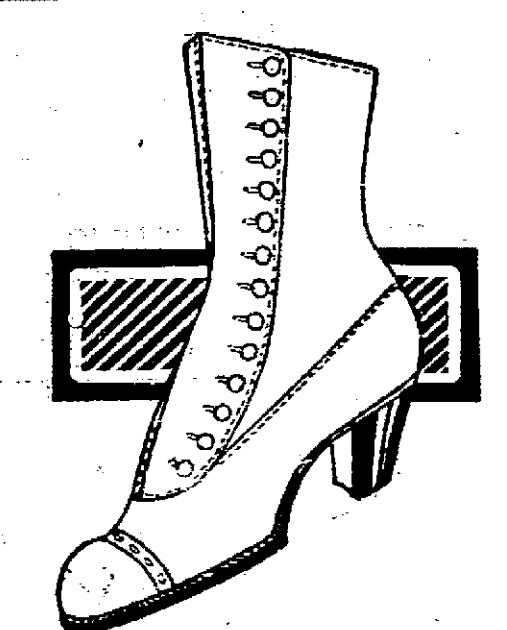

One physician in New York, a specialist in his profession, has been able to do this—RELIEVE PRACTICALLY EVERY CASE PRESENTED TO HIM, with a prescription which is known as "NURITO." It is an ethical prescription and contains neither opiates nor narcotics; and it has proven itself in more than 45,000 cases to be a positive antidote for the urea acid in the system which causes rheumatism, sciatica and neuritis.

"Nurito" is one of the NOTEWORTHY ACHIEVEMENTS of the medical profession in these days of rapid advancement. It is NOT a patent medicine and must not be subjected to the prejudice which exists against nostrums.

No dieting is necessary—on the contrary, you are recommended to eat your usual allotment of food. No matter how badly you are suffering, you will begin to feel the medicine work at once. Come in and let us tell you about it—look at the proofs, backed by affidavit. The physician who can relieve every case is not here by accident, BUT THE MEDICINE THAT HE PRESCRIBES IS HERE.

"Nurito," which is in powder form, sells for $1 and $2 a box. To try it means to be convinced—to replace your pains and aches with enthusiasm for this advancement in medicine. Magistral Chemical Company, Flatiron Building, New York.

Tariff revision should begin with the schedules which have been most obviously used to kill competition and to raise prices in the United States, arbitrarily and without regard to the prices pertaining in the markets of the world; and it should, before it is finished or interrupted, be extended to every item in every schedule which affords any opportunity for monopoly, for special advantage to limited groups of beneficiaries or for subsidized control of any kind in the markets or the enterprises of the country; until special favors of every sort shall have been absolutely withdrawn and every part of our laws of taxation shall have been transformed from a system of government patronage into a system of just and reasonable charges which shall fall where they will create the least burden. When we shall have done that, we can fix questions of revenue and of business adjustment in a new spirit and with clear minds. We shall then be partners with all the business men of the country, and a day of freer, more stable prosperity will have dawned.—Woodrow Wilson.

A FINE SHOWING.

Democratic candidates for state offices go into the campaign this fall with an exceptionally good record for efficiency and economy to sustain them. One of the most satisfactory things about the Democratic administration is the careful manner in which the state finances have been cared for. Prior to the present administration the state had drifted along toward bankruptcy. In the two years preceding, the expenditures exceeded the receipts by $1,530,967.34, the 1909 expenditure being $1,032,254.97 in excess of the receipts while in 1910 the expenses were $507,712.37 in excess of the revenue.

There was quite a different showing in 1911, with Democrats on guard. In that year the receipts were $13,037,293.01 and the expenditures $12,932,343.97, the receipts being $104,949.04 in excess of expenditures. This good financial showing was made notwithstanding there was a big increase in the expense of the state government brought about by the establishment of the state tax commission, workmen's compensation commission, and others, for which the people had been pleading in vain for many years, but which Republicans denied.

The big increase in revenue which Democratic state officers obtained did not increase the burden of individuals, instead, interests that could well afford to pay made it up. Of the $1,470,170.24 increase in revenue in 1911 $1,148,797.09 is from the corporations in the shape of excise and capital stock taxes. This increase is in addition to the property tax that corporations will pay into the different county treasuries.

Turkey informs the world that she will make reforms of her own in Macedonia. But the world has a pretty fair knowledge of the character of Turkish reform.

We are not informed of the political affiliations of the present Cyrus McCormick, but the original Cyrus was a rock-rooted and mountain-buttressed Democrat, and the present Cyrus' contribution may have been due to hereditary influences.

SOME LESSONS FROM 1907.

The Republican panic of 1907 furnished forceful refutation of Republican claim that Democratic administration and hard times lower tariff and panics have been coexisting.

In 1907, in the midst of prosperity, thousands of leading banks with hundreds of millions on deposit suspended cash payments. The trouble began as a result of a struggle between great New York financial institutions for business.

The Philadelphia Record thus explains the falling off in the registration in eastern cities: "It is evidently not a mere coincidence that the registration in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore has fallen much below the figures of 1908 and that the loss, so far as can be determined, seems to be almost entirely among the Republicans. There is evidently a large element in that party which does not intend to vote this year. These conservative members are disgusted with the quarrel between the two Republican factions, but cannot sufficiently shake off old prejudices to come over squarely and cast a ballot for Governor Wilson."

A sample of the frosty character of the Taft political meetings that prevail the country over, was that at Columbus Wednesday night. Three of the leading Republican spell-binders of the city appealed to the little crowd of 75 that had been drummed together, depicting the awful condition that will afflict the country in case Woodrow Wilson is elected. But all the fiery oratory of the speakers could not arouse the little bunch present to keep them from shivering. The meeting was so much of a frost that all present had the shivers.

J. HOWARD JONES.

A popular Newarkite who is asking the confidence of the voters of this vicinity is Attorney J. Howard Jones, candidate on the Democratic ticket for prosecuting attorney, and indications are that he will be granted a splendid plurality at the election next month. Mr. Jones has never before appeared before the people as a candidate, but his record as an attorney has won him the respect of all who have had opportunity to come in contact with him professionally, and his character has been beyond criticism.

Mr. Jones is a native of Licking county, having been born in Granville, where he resided until 21 years of age. He is a graduate of Denison University and a member of the chapter of Phi Gamma Delta at that institution. His legal training was obtained at the Ohio State University law school, where his ability was substantially evidenced. Since his admission to the bar, eleven years ago, he has devoted his time to general practice, paying particular attention, however, to criminal cases, in the jurisprudence of which he is thoroughly conversant.

Mr. Jones is a member of the Presbyterian church and prominent in identified with the fraternal activities of local Masons, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias.

SHOOTS WIFE; KILLS HIMSELF.

Elkins, W. Va., Oct. 18.—Domestic troubles are believed to have been responsible for the attempted murder of Mrs. Delbert Pritt of Copen, a mining town, by her husband, a miner, who, after firing two shots from a revolver into his wife's body, and believing her dead, turned the weapon on himself, dying instantly.

GOOD EATERS ARE GOOD FIGHTERS

Whether at Work or Play, Endurance Comes From Good Digestion: Always Assured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Men and women must have quick wits and good spirit to stand the days' battles. A dyspeptic must get away with his work, but is always at sword's point with those around. A good stomach and a good meal well digested puts us in a good, jolly fighting mood. The sort that mows down work and commands hearty co-operation of our associates. The man at the head of a business who has a good stomach has behind him a good fighting force against competition and the daily mix-ups that are bound to take place. In fact, a well organized business is like our digestive system.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets as soon as taken into the system go right to work as assistants to the stomach, rendering it an immense amount of help in working out the very complex processes of digestion, encouraging it in the performance of its functions, relieving it of a portion of its duties, thereby allowing it a temporary respite, and also toning up, strengthening, revitalizing its secretory glands, mucous membranes, absorbing glands and muscular walls in such a way that the stomach soon recovers its lost powers of digestion, of motility, assimilation, and ultimately does its work as well as ever without outside assistance.

These powerful little tablets contain in a concentrated form, every element necessary to digest all forms of food, whether meats, vegetables, cereals, eggs, fish, etc., and they act equally well in an acid or an alkaline medium. If your stomach is ailing, does not digest as quickly or as thoroughly as it should, and your entire system in consequence is suffering from malnutrition, and mal-assimilation, you owe it to yourself to give the abused stomach assistance to help it out of its present condition.

The solution of your stomach trouble problem is easy: Go to your druggist at once and secure a package. Then take one or two after each meal or as required. Then note the difference in the way you feel. All druggists sell them. Price 50 cents.

SOCIETY

It is always with a feeling of regret with which a pastor and his people part, especially if the pastor has labored earnestly for a number of years on a charge, and the people of the Jacksonville M. E. church, to whom Rev. J. R. Tibbles has ministered for six years, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Long, where Rev. Tibbles and family were guests, and marching into the house, singing "We're Marching to Zion," they completely surprised the good pastor and his family.

Miss Frances Tavener sang some beautiful solos, and a number of good old songs were sung by those present, after which Mr. Atlee Arnold made an interesting speech at the conclusion of which he presented Mr. and Mrs. Tibbles with a beautiful silver cake tray as a token of appreciation from their friends. Mr. Tibbles in thanking the people, spoke of his work here, of his new home, and that wherever he goes he expects to win for his Master. He spoke of the kindness to him of members of other churches, and of people who were not members of any churches.

Delightful refreshments were served during the evening. Rev. Mr. Tibbles in the years he has been in this charge, has ministered to many in time of sorrow, and it is with a feeling of tenderness with which they bade him good-bye. He has bought property in Reynoldsburg, where he will make his home, preaching at Pickerington.

Among those present to bid him farewell were Owen Tavener and family, George Tavener and family, A. B. Gray and family, Mr. and Mrs. Colonel Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Crow, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harter, Lemuel Puffer and family, Arlee Arnold and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davis and daughters Benzel and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Brownfield, Earl Norman and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jury and daughter Reba, Mr. and Mrs. John Crist, Mrs. Frank Winice and son Wayne, Mrs. Frank Daily and daughter Anna, Miss Sarah Swan, Betty Jones, Mary Osburn, Mary Handley, Florence Eagle, Mrs. Lottie Crist, Misses Lee Osburn, Milton Handley, Howard Stotler, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Long and family.

Miss Mary Owen is visiting her cousin, Miss Grace Young, 550 Oak street, Columbus. Miss Owen went to Columbus to attend the Albright-Rowland wedding and a party given last Monday night by Miss Young for Mrs. Henry Babbitt Albright.

Rev. and Mrs. Jos. A. Bennett, who will soon leave this city for their new home in West Virginia, were again honored on Thursday when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watkins were host and hostess to a banquet, complete in all its appointments, at their beautiful home on the corner of Elm and Cherry streets in Granville. It was indeed a magnificent sight which met the eyes of the guests when they were ushered into the dining room. One could easily imagine oneself as standing in the midst of a woods made gorgeous by the work of nature and nature's artist. The darkened windows were banked high with tinted autumn leaves while the same decoration was banked in the large open fire place and every available corner of the room; huge clusters of the leaves orhering the festal board upon which lay leaves at intervals as if they had just fallen from the tree-like structure above. Numerous white tapers cast a twilight glow over all, completing a picture worth the study of artist. It was amid this fitting setting that the following menu was served:

Celery	Fruit Cocktail	Olives
Pickles	Fried Oysters
Chicken	Mashed Potatoes	Baked Ham
Sweets	Crabapple Jelly
Parkhouse Rolls	Brown Bread
Waldorf Salad	Pumpkin Pie
Ice Cream	Salted Nuts
Coffee	Margarites

Music was ably furnished by Mr. Hamrick. Those who participated in the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. Bennett, Dr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Dr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Wyrly, Mr. and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Marion Rose, Mrs. Prouty, Mrs. Warner, C. Howland, Mrs. Snider, Mrs. Silbelle Setton, Mrs. Rosson, Mrs. Lowe, Miss Mary Watkins, Mr. Hamrick, Mrs. Alice Jones of Delaware, Miss Alice Chantler of Pennsylvania, and the host and hostess.

Miss King will give her third free twilight organ recital in the Second Presbyterian church tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, promptly at 4 o'clock. Everybody welcome.

MAKES FACE YOUNG—TIGHTENS LOVE LINES

"Aurilla" in Woman's Sphere. A fretful expression, a wrinkled face and a faded complexion, do more to drive the male members from home than is commonly supposed. It was one of my greatest difficulties to appear smiling, fresh and elegant, when my dear ones were with me. But I have overcome all that. I have changed my mental attitude and I now find it second nature to look cheerful. Due partly to this, partly to a remarkable treatment recommended by a friend, my appearance has so improved I look fifteen years younger than before. A simple face lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint which I used, proved a wonderful wrinkle-eraser. I still use this occasionally. To renovate my complexion I purchased an ounce of ordinary, precolored wax at my druggist's and before using this up, my marvelous transformation had taken place. It was like removing an unsightly mask, revealing a new face, a youthful complexion of delicate, healthy, clear, white and velvety. I merely applied the wax like cold cream before retiring, washing it off mornings. Ten days' treatment sufficed. (Advertisement.)

HOW TO RESIST

Chronic Coughs and Colds.

Strong, vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold; it's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run-down condition again? Mrs. Olivia Parham of East Durham, N. C., says: "I took Vinol for a chronic cough which had lasted two years and the cough not only disappeared, but it built up my strength as well."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood-building iron added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say. Frank D. Hall, druggist Newark, O.

Common Pleas Court. In common pleas court the case of the Hoster-Columbus Associated Breweries Co. vs. Flaut & Ross and J. M. Friddle, was continued until next term of court. The suit was brought in replevin to determine the title and ownership of a quantity of bar-room fixtures at Johnstown. A number of witnesses had been subpoenaed for the trial of the case, and after a jury had been sworn, leave was asked to amend the petition, which was granted by the court. The defendant's objection, after the amendment was made, to going to trial now, the trial was continued.

GOV. WILSON DAY IN NEW YORK ON SATURDAY, NOV. 2

Chicago, Oct. 18.—Members of the National Democratic campaign committee today proclaimed Saturday, November 2, as "Woodrow Wilson Day," instead of October 21, as had been announced. It is planned to have Governor Wilson address a mass meeting in Madison Square Garden, New York, on that day, and to telegraph excerpts of his speech to be read at similar meetings held throughout the country. One hundred thousand business men will be in the parade.

WILSON ANSWERS ROOSEVELT QUERIES PUT BY BEVERIDGE

New York, Oct. 18.—A telegram from Governor Wilson answering the questions given by Senator Beveridge Wednesday night at Louisville as queries which Colonel Roosevelt had intended to put to Governor Wilson was given out here today by Senator James A. O'Gorman, at Democratic National headquarters. Senator Beveridge said Roosevelt's questions concerned Governor Wilson's enforcement of the corporation laws of New Jersey, and asked why the Standard Oil company and the American Tobacco company had not been prosecuted in the state where they were organized.

Governor Wilson's telegram was as follows:

"I authorize you to say that the Republican majority in the legislature made revision of corporation laws impossible and no New Jersey official could prosecute or propose dissolution for breach of the federal statutes."

"Governor Wilson's telegram puts the matter squarely up to the Republican legislature of New Jersey," said Senator O'Gorman in making public the message.

LABOR LEADER FEICK DECLARES FOR WILSON

Fred L. Feick, Indiana's railroad labor leader, stamps his approval on Wilson and Marshall, tells the wage earners they are the greatest Governors New Jersey and Indiana have ever had and the greatest Progressives of modern times.

Mr. Feick says the legislation passed under their leadership in their respective states warrants the hearty support of every railroad employee in this country and Mr. Feick warns the railroad employees to beware of the "Full Dinner Pail" and the "Steady Job" arguments that have been presented in past campaigns by the Republican party.

END LIVER TROUBLE WITHOUT CALOMEL

Untrustworthy Drug, Thought to Loosen the Teeth, Now Made Absolutely Unnecessary.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are the mildest but surest laxative known, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. Dr. Edwards has been calomel's uncompromising foe. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-oil-colored tablets, a rare combination of vegetable compounds mixed with olive oil. These pleasant harmless little tablets do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel at all, but to let Olive Tablets take their place.

TABERNACLE

all about the Bible, or 'I want to be sure about this thing or that thing.' Suppose I should offer you a $20 gold piece and you should want to know purified the gold, and the man who mined it before you would take it. You would be just as rich without knowing his name as with knowing his name."

Easy for You to Starve.
The evangelist further sustained his point by supposing that a hungry man should refuse a meal because he had not studied organic chemistry and did not understand the chemistry of digestion. "The only thing that you have to realize is that you are lost, and that God can save you, and He will give to you the great gift of everlasting life, to the poor as well as the rich, the ignorant as well as the wise and the evil as well as the good. If you are not saved tonight, it will not be God's fault; it will be your own."

"When you are offered a gift and you do not take it, God is not to blame. If you offer a hungry man a meal and he refuses it, he really commits suicide. God doesn't condemn anyone for doing wrong; the condemnation is for rejecting Jesus Christ. "God says, 'My grace is sufficient.' That means, 'there is enough of it.' "What is it to believe in Christ?" Dr. Lyon continued. "It is to believe that when He gives you a command, He will also give you the power to obey that command. There are two things to belief—just like a pair of shears. One is to believe and the other is to have faith."

Do You Want a Million?
"The emperor of Germany could give you a million dollars if he wanted to, but he hasn't the desire. I may have the desire, but I haven't the ability. The two things go together if you are to receive the gift. God has both—He is willing to save and He is able to save."

The evangelist spent considerable time discussing Paul's "thorn in the flesh," declaring that it might have been any one of a dozen things, sore eyes, being a semi-paralytic, or submitting to ridicule—and in all of these things he could not doubt find many to sympathize with him. "We all have our thorns in the flesh," the speaker added. "I know I have mine. Paul prayed three times that the thorn be taken away, and God answered that prayer by refusing the request. It's a good thing that God doesn't answer all prayers," he suggested, as he told of his young son wanting to use a razor one day. "What do you want it for?" Dr. Lyon asked him. "Oh, Margaret and I just want to whittle," came the reply.

Keeps the Jezabel Away. Jezabel got after him, prayed under the juniper tree that he might die, and if there's anything that would make a man want to die, it's having a woman like that continually after him. He wanted to die right away. But God answered his prayer by refusing his request. God didn't want him to die under that juniper tree; He wanted to take Elijah up to heaven in a chariot of fire, and that's greater than dying under a tree.

"God gave Paul something better than what he asked for. He told him 'I'll give you grace to overcome the thorns. My grace is sufficient for thee, and my strength is made perfect in weakness.'"

"My friends, haven't you ever thanked God for the thorns? If you haven't, you can't expect to have that superabundance of divine grace."

"But isn't that the way God acts all the way through? If the Lord puts a polar bear to live on the icebergs, He gives him a fine fur coat to keep him warm. If He puts a dweller down in the heat of the equatorial sun. He gives him the broad palm leaves to shade him and the fruit juices to cool him. If He puts us here in the land of hard winters, he stores up the coal and gas and oil so that we may have heat and light in our dwellings. Wherever there is a need, God has also provided the supply."

Will Give the Great Strength.
"Apply that truth to spiritual things. My grace is sufficient for thee, sufficient to save and to keep you safe throughout eternity."

"But, some one will say, 'That's good logic, but I am peculiar; I have more temptations than others.' Let us look at this third point, then—the directness of God's grace."

"God says that His grace is sufficient for 'thee.' I care not whether your name is long or short, it fits right in there. I am glad that God didn't send a special message that His grace is sufficient for 'H. H. Lyon.' That might mean any other Scotch-Irish-English-Welshman in this whole world besides me. But he says, 'My grace is sufficient for thee.'"

Dr. Lyon related a conversation with a railroad man who said he could not accept Christ because he was an engineer and subject to great temptations. He was finally shown that the more temptations a man has, the more strength he should have to withstand them, and therefore was in greater need of God's grace than ever before. "That's plain, isn't it," Dr. Lyon inquired. "If you have more temptations than others, God wants to give you more help."

Shot Out His Brains.
The man saw the error of his way and accepted Christ, becoming a strong worker in the cause of Christ.

"Every one of us, old or young, needs the grace of God," added the speaker. "You need it first of all in adversity. The wheel of fortune turns around very rapidly. You may be at the top today and at the bottom tomorrow." He laid stress upon this possibility by telling of the failure in Cincinnati, during a panic, of two business men, one an infidel and the other a Christian. The infidel went home, took a revolver and ended his life. The other went home, thanked God that he still had his wife and family and the love of Christ in his heart, and went out to more, than regain his lost fortune.

"You need it in a time of prosperity. It seems only natural to turn to God in a time of difficulty, but in time of prosperity we are apt to become self-satisfied. You need the grace of God to keep you gentle and humble, so that the Lord can continue his blessings. "You need His grace in a time of temptation. Amid the shoals of modern society, you cannot get along without it. You try it, and you'll fail. Even you home-keepers cannot get along without God's grace."

"I used to think that all a wife had to do was straighten up the house and get meals and then spend the rest of the day painting pictures. But when those youthful Americans came into our home, I changed my mind."

"I had to take care of those children for a whole week, at their grandfather's farm in Iowa. Change places with my wife? Well, I should say not! A thousand little things a day to try your patience—oh, you house-keepers know what I mean by that!" "If there is anything in this world that is practical, it is the grace and help of Jesus Christ to smoothe the furrows from the brow, and keep the smiles on your face, keeping you sweet and young and beautiful all your days."

"We need the grace of God in sorrow," continued Dr. Lyon, after devoting a few minutes to a discussion of the need of Christ's help in business, in order to keep the business life straight and perpendicular. "Sooner than you think, the dark day is coming to you; adversity, sorrow, sickness and the loss of your loved ones is going to lay its hand on you. What is more pitiful than to see a home of wealth and luxury, and then, when sorrow comes in, to see that home absolutely crushed, without the help of God."

Crushed Without Grace.
Dr. Lyon related the experience of members of one of his former churches, in which the mother, a selfish society woman, refused to accept Christ because everything seemed to be moving along nicely, they were making money and had a fine home, and lots of pleasures. An accident carried away their little son, and the mother, broken-hearted, was absolutely helpless. (Continued on page 10, col. 1.)

less, embittered, crushed—without the knowledge of the grace of Christ.

"You people of Newark that have good positions, in the shop, office or store; you society people that wear good clothes, and have pleasant surroundings, that have been thinking, 'Oh, well, before I die I will accept God's help—sooner than you think the hour of sorrow is going to come to you, and in that hour of sorrow, without the help of God your life must go out in blackness of disaster and despair. Do as Joseph did in Egypt, in the seven years of plenty—lay up for the seven years of famine. Now, in the midday of your opportunities, lay the power and the love of God come into your lives. Make a connection between you and Jesus Christ and let that divine might flow into your soul and give you that divine dynamic, and that enthusiasm and life energy that God promises you. And when that hour of death comes and you are facing the grave and judgment, without the help and saving grace of Jesus, what have you? Nothing, absolutely nothing!"

The Plea Was Heeded.

"Do not carelessly pass out of this tabernacle tonight. Do not pass out of that door and say, 'That's all right for someone else, but I'll wait a while.' My friends, this message is for you. The law came from Moses, but grace and truth come from Jesus Christ. Accept the Son of God as your Lord and Saviour tonight, and then you can say, 'Thy grace is sufficient for me,' and you can have the assurance that all things will work together for your good, because you love God."

Dr. Lyon's closing plea was one that could not easily be refused. Throwing his very soul into a request that men give up their lives of sin and accept Christ, he stirred his audience as it has not been stirred before. Those who have already professed Christ became active, passing between the benches in their effort to bring a message of Christian consolation to those who are rejecting the Saviour. The score that did show their conviction of sin, publicly acknowledging their desire to lead the Christian life, were not inactive, and many did their utmost to bring their unsaved friends into the audience to a closer recognition of their need. The spirit of Christian service was greatly aroused, and the hearts of everyone were stirred in desire to awaken the spiritual souls in Newark to a greater sense of their insufficiency without the grace of God.

1500 Women in Meeting.

One of the most successful meetings of the local campaign was that of yesterday afternoon, when Dr. Lyon addressed fully fifteen hundred women, taking to them the beautiful story of Mary's gift of the precious ointment to her Master at the feast. Dr. Lyon emphasized throughout his sermon the necessity of giving to the Master, the very best that we have—a full surrender of all things earthly in order to receive the great reward of eternity. The meeting was one essentially of interest to women, and Dr. Lyon's message of the graciousness of Mary's spirit was of a most pleasing character and given to his hearers in his kindest spirit. The after meeting proved impressive throughout, over half a hundred of the women of Newark signifying their intention to give their entire lives to the keeping of Christ, to live for Him and with Him throughout all eternity. In this number were some of the city's most prominent society matrons whom touched by the evangelist's simple story of homey love for the Master, were impelled to a sense of their heretofore insufficiency in Christian affairs, and pledged their lives to a furtherance of all that Christ would have them do.

SUMMER FOODS OPEN CAUSE DYSPEPSIA.
 Their Effect on the Digestive Organs Responsible for Many of the Season's Ills.

Summer should be the period of perfect health, but impure water and milk, surplus fruit and the tendency to indulge in acid foods and food drinks, produces a contrary condition in many people.

The effect of the average summer diet is to constipate even normally regular bowels, and this results in disarranging the entire digestive system. When the bowels are choked with the stomach's refuse, indigestion is almost sure to follow, and the waste matter that should pass out through the bowels, not finding passage, ferments in the stomach and the poisons are forced into the blood, causing much distress and often serious illness.

To keep the bowels free, there is no more effective remedy than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a pleasant-tasting, bowel stimulant and laxative tonic that is very gentle in its action, bringing relief in an easy, natural manner, and without discomfort. A spoonful of Syrup Pepsin will quickly check summer diarrhoea by cleansing the bowels and removing the foreign matter that irritates and inflames the tissue. It is sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle; a large family size, considerably more than twice the quantity costs a dollar. If you have never used Syrup Pepsin and would like a free trial bottle, postpaid, write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 406 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

BECKER

 was intended to strengthen one of the important links in the state's chain of evidence.

Mrs. Rosenberg was one of a dozen witnesses put on by the state to close up some of the loose ends of its case, which has taken seven days to complete.

She said she had been at Rockaway Beach until July 14 and there met "Gyp, the Blood," his wife, "Dago Frank," "Whitely Lewis," and others she did not recall.

At her home on Southern Boulevard she had met Jack Rose, "Dago Frank," Schepps, "Gyp the Blood," and "Whitely" Lewis. The last named was living with her husband and her.

"Where was your husband the night of the murder?" Mr. McIntyre asked in cross examination.

"I don't know."
 "Was he at the scene of the murder?"

"I don't know."
 "Where were you?"
 "At home."

"Since your husband's arrest have you communicated with him?"
 "I have written him two letters."

"Did you mention in these letters that you would testify for the state?"

"In one of them."

"When did you see Schepps?"

"In June. I saw Rose and him at my house."

"Had you ever seen him before then?"

"No."

"What was your husband's business?"

"Salesman; he traveled."

"Didn't you, as a matter of fact,

SAVES ELDERLY PEOPLE FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weaknesses, Backache, Stiff Joints, Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Doses Are Taken.

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can avoid the tortures of backache, and rheumatism, and be saved the annoyance of getting up at night with disagreeable bladder disorders, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly cures the most severe and obstinate cases.

Croxone quickly and permanently cures these conditions because it removes the cause. It is the most wonderful remedy ever devised for ridding the system of uric acid. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. Pills, tablets and other medicines merely stimulate the kidneys, occasionally giving temporary relief. Croxone makes the kidneys filter the blood and sift out all the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive kidneys like water does a sponge, dissolves, and see Schepps the latter part of May?"

 "I don't remember; the day Jack Sullivan was arrested was the first day I saw him."
 "Did you hear any talk between your husband and Schepps that day?"

"Yes; they were talking about 20 minutes. Louis was sick in bed and Schepps came to see him with Jack Rose."

"When did you see Schepps again?"

"Never."

The state here rested its case and Mr. McIntyre said that since the trial had started new evidence had been obtained by the defense. He asked to have Morris Luban recalled.

"I want to show that he is a convict," he said.

Mr. Moss objected to recalling Luban.

"The defense has closed its cross examination," he said.

"You can prove in your defense," the Court directed, "what you wish to prove about Luban."

Mr. McIntyre made the usual formal motion to have the case dismissed, on the ground that it was not proved and that only alleged accomplices of the defendant had given their testimony, with slight corroboration and such evidence was not competent to secure a conviction.

This motion was denied.

There was a mild scare in the Tombs last night when Harry Horowitz, better known as "Gyp the Blood," was taken ill. It was at first thought he had been poisoned, but a physician summoned from Bellevue hospital, who found "Gyp" groaning in pain, decided after a close examination that the trouble was inflammation of the stomach. "Gyp" intimated several times that he wanted to be taken to a hospital, but his wish was not gratified.

FIRST THINGS

The first attempt to cross the Atlantic in a modern airship came to failure two years ago today, when Walter Wellman, Melvin Vanman and their four associates were picked up at sea by a Bermuda steamer ship Trent, after their aerial craft, the America, had been caught in a storm and blown far from its course. Previous unsuccessful attempts had been made to cross the ocean in balloons, but the Wellman expedition was the first to try the feat with an airship. Melvin Vanman built another airship and was killed when it exploded not long ago. Wellman had the distinction of sending the first wireless message ever dispatched from an airship in flight and of being the first wrecked airman to be rescued by a ship at sea. The America set a new world's record for distance, 1,000 miles, and a new record for time in the air of any aerial craft except a drifting balloon, seven days and a half hours.

BOARD OF TRADE ARRANGING AN AUTOMOBILE TRIP FOR TUESDAY.

If You Will Take Delegate Into Your Home, Telephone Librarian Mrs. Rankin Now.

One hundred and fifty or more delegates are expected to arrive in Newark next Monday to attend the Ohio Library association meeting on Oct. 21, 22 and 23. As the hotel accommodations will not be sufficient to care for all of the visitors, Mrs. C. C. Rankin, librarian, is endeavoring to find places in the homes throughout the city for some of the visitors. Each delegate will pay for accommodations in private houses at the rate of 75 cents a night. Many Newark people have offered to entertain some of the visitors, but Mrs. Rankin stated Friday morning that about ten delegates who are coming have not yet been assigned places. It is probable that reservations will be asked for others tomorrow and Sunday. Those who will be willing to entertain one or more delegates will please telephone Mrs. Rankin at once at the Public Library. The phone number is Auto 4193. Many of the best homes in the city are being opened to these delegates to the library convention.
